His presence is always available. He's not a friend who turns away from you or hides his heart. He's not a small gust of wind that comes and goes as he pleases. He's a God who would suffer and die that he might tear the veil and make his presence fully, continuously available to all those who would seek him.

The Experience of His Presence - First15

Experiencing the Presence, Bible believers ought to know something of what the Scriptures teach about the subject. They should allow His Word to inform them as to whether the methods being advocated by evangelicals to experience God's presence are legitimate or illegitimate, authentic or synthetic, or worse, demonic.
