For privacy. Edward Snowden: "Arguing that you don't care about the right to privacy because you have nothing to hide is no different than saying you don't care about free speech because you have nothing to say." "When you say, 'I have nothing to hide,' you're saying, 'I don't care about this right.' You're saying, 'I don't have this right, because I've got to the point ...

In your experience, how often does your audio application have to compete for CPU time with other regular system processes? You can attempt to do as much "scheduling" within your own thread (or perhaps a thread pool within the same address space), but sometimes the system (as a whole) has other things to do than just schedule your own application.
